- ¹ In contrast to Martin (2000a: 153) I classify enjoy as Satisfaction: pleasure rather than Happiness: Affection, since enjoying something means that something gives you pleasure, and seems to be goal-related (which is what dis/satisfaction is about, see Martin & White 2005: 49). Vice versa, I classify respect as Happiness: Affection rather than dis/satisfaction (Martin & White 2005: 49), since it seems to me not related to the pursuit of goals but rather to affection/liking. It must be noted that there is some overlap between DIS/SATISFACTION and UN/HAPPINESS.
- ² I only coded I’m/I am sorry as Unhappiness: Misery; the general, conventionalized use of sorry was excluded from Affect, since its emotional meaning is bleached.
